

Vigen Bakhshinyan, MD

was born in 1975 in Yerevan, Armenia.

Graduated from Yerevan State Medical University after M. Heratsi in 1998, Faculty of Pediatrics

1998-2001 – Residency in ENT, Chair of Ear-Nose-Throat Diseases of the Yerevan State Medical University after Mkhitar Heratsi, Medical Centre "Erebouni"

2001-2005 – PhD-student, Chair of Ear-Nose-Throat Diseases of the Yerevan State Medical University after Mkhitar Heratsi, Medical Centre "Erebouni"

October 2004 – Defence of the PhD-thesis “The objective methods of hearing observations in the diagnosis of different types of hearing loss and in the determination of indication for cochlear implantation”

Scientific supervisors – Prof. Tavartkiladze G. A. (Russia) and Prof. Shukuryan A. K. (Armenia)

2005-2006 - Assistant (junior member of teaching), Chair of Ear-Nose-Throat Diseases of the Yerevan State Medical University after Mkhitar Heratsi, Medical Centre "Erebouni"

2006-2011 – Senior Researcher, Cochlear Implant Center, National Research Center for Audiology and Hearing Rehabilitation, Moscow, Russia

Since 2011 – Head of Cochlear Implant Center, National Research Center for Audiology and Hearing Rehabilitation, Moscow, Russia

Full member of the International Society of Audiology, Russian Audiological Society and Russian Society of Otorhinolaryngology

research experience and interests:

Experimental and clinical Audiology; Cochlear implantation; cochlear implants fitting and estimation of its efficiency; Otology, Otosurgery, Hearing electrophysiology - Acoustically and electrically evoked auditory potentials.

publications:

More than 80 publications dealing with various aspects of experimental and clinical audiology and otorhinolaryngology including early detection, diagnosis and rehabilitation of hearing disorders, cochlear implantation.